2016 Vermont Everyday Hero Nomination Form

The American Red Cross event recognizes individuals or groups across the country who have demonstrated an act of heroism and have shown courage, kindness and unselfish character in their service to others. The nominee may be a professionally trained life saver or simply a good Samaritan. You may nominate a friend, family member, work colleague, or other community member. The community-based Hero Selection Committee will select the winners in each category. Feel free to include news clippings, witness contact information and any additional details that will assist the community-based Hero Selection Committee.

Everyday Heroes Nominees must meet the following criteria:

1. Nominee must be a resident of Vermont.
2. The heroic act/rescue must have taken place between December 1, 2014 and November 30, 2015.
