

EMR: Taking a state-approved 12-hour refresher course will fulfill the following NCCR categories
EMR Refresher	Preparatory - 1 hour	Airway - 2 hours	Patient Assessment - 2 hours	Circulation - 3 hours	Illness/Injury - 3 hours	Childbirth/Children - 1 hour
National Continued Competency Requirements (8 hours)	May be used for state/local or individual competency categories	Airway, Respiration & Ventilation - meets 2 of 2 required hours	Medical - meets 1 of 3 required hours PLUS 1 additional hour	Cardiovascular - meets 2 of 2 required hours PLUS 1 additional hour	Medical - meets 2 of 3 required hours; Trauma - meets 1 required hour	May be used for state/local or individual competency categories

EMT: Taking a state-approved 24-hour refresher course will fulfill the following NCCR categories
EMT Refresher	Preparatory - 1 hour	Airway - 2 hours	Patient Assessment - 3 hours	Medical/Behavioral - 4 hours	Trauma - 4 hours	OB/Peds - 2 hours
National Continued Competency Requirements (20 hours)	Operations - meets 1 of 2 required hours	Airway, Respiration & Ventilation - meets 2 of 4 required hours	Cardiovascular - meets 3 of 6 required hours	Medical - meets 4 of 6 required hours	Trauma - meets 2 of 2 required hours PLUS 2 additional hours	May be used for state/local or individual competency categories

AEMT: Taking a state-approved 36-hour refresher course will fulfill the following NCCR categories
AEMT Refresher	Airway, Breathing & Cardiology - 12 hours	Medical Emergencies - 6 hours	Trauma - 5 hours	OB/Pediatrics - 12 hours	Operational Tasks - 1 hour
National Continued Competency Requirements (25 hours)	Airway - meets 4 of 4 required hours ; Cardiology - meets 6 of 6 required hours PLUS 2 additional hours	Medical - meets 6 of 6 required hours	Trauma - meets 2 of 2 required hours PLUS 3 additional hours	May be used for state/local or individual competency categories	Operations - meets 1 of 2 required hours

Paramedic: Taking a state-approved 48-hour refresher course will fulfill the following NCCR categories
Paramedic Refresher	Airway, Breathing & Cardiology - 16 hours	Medical Emergencies - 8 hours	Trauma - 6 hours	OB/Pediatrics - 16 hours	Operational Tasks - 2 hours
National Continued Competency Requirements (30 hours)	Airway, Respiration & Ventilation - meets 4 of 4 required hours; Cardiovascular - meets 10 of 10 required hours; PLUS 2 additional hours	Medical - meets 7 of 7 required hours PLUS 1 additional hour	Trauma - meets 4 of 4 required hours PLUS 2 additional hours	May be used for state/local or individual competency categories	Operations - meets 2 of 5 required hours