

Completing the Marriage or Civil Union Certificate

GUIDELINES FOR OFFICIANTS

We have prepared these guidelines to assist you in completing the OFFICIANT section of the Vermont Marriage Certificate or Civil Union Certificate (items 17a-f.) On this page, there are step-by-step instructions for filling out each item. On the back page, there is a checklist. If you have questions or would like additional copies of these guidelines, contact the Vital Records Unit of the Vermont Department of Health, or any Town Clerk.

Please type or use black ink.

This will increase the chances that readable copies can be made from the certificate for the next 100 years.

_____ Are you legally authorized to perform a wedding or to certify a civil union in Vermont?

If you are a judge or justice, you must have taken the oath of office, and you must perform the wedding or certify the civil union during your term of office.

If you are a member of the clergy and reside in Vermont, you must be ordained, licensed or authorized by your denomination.

If you are a member of the clergy, but are not a Vermont resident, you must have special authorization from the probate court in the county where you will be performing the ceremony, unless you reside in an adjoining state or country and your church, temple, mosque, or other religious organization lies entirely or partly in Vermont. Contact the probate court for details.

_____ Are these individuals eligible to enter into marriage or a civil union?

_____ Do they have a valid Vermont marriage or civil union license?

_____ Will the certification date fall within the "VALID FROM _____ TO _____" dates?
(See 16d of the CERTIFICATION section of the license.)

After the Marriage or Civil Union:

_____ Fill out the remaining items of the OFFICIANT section using a typewriter or pen with permanent black ink (17a - f).

_____ Return the completed certificate within 10 days to the town clerk who issued the license (Block 16b & c). The certificate does not become a legal document until the town clerk has registered it. Do not give the certificate to the couple.
