

CSHN is a free public health program that supports Vermont children and youth by promoting comprehensive, culturally responsive, community-based, and family-centered services.

- For children with complex, chronic health conditions and/or developmental needs
- Birth to age 21
- A team of social workers, nurses, and specialty staff with experience supporting children with special health needs, their families, and providers.

Services and Programming:

- Care Consultation
- Children's Personal Care Services
- Community Nutrition Services
- Health Systems Team
- Newborn Screening
- Pediatric Hi-Tech Nursing Program
- Pediatric Palliative Care Program
- Vermont Early Hearing Detection and Intervention (VTEHDI)

Contact Information:

800-660-4427 or 802-863-7338

[www.healthvermont.gov/family/
children-special-health-need](http://www.healthvermont.gov/family/children-special-health-need)

Care Consultation Team Email
AHS.VDHCSHNCONSULTATION@vermont.gov

