

Department of Health
Agency of Human Services

H1N1 Vaccine Clinic Offered on Saturday as part of the Vermont 50 Plus and Baby Boomers Expo

For Immediate Release: Jan. 29, 2010
Media Contact: Communication Office
Vermont Department of Health

BURLINGTON – A public H1N1 vaccine clinic expected to draw older Vermonters – but open to everyone – will be available as part of the Vermont “50 Plus Expo,” on Saturday, Jan. 30 at the Sheraton Hotel and Conference Center in South Burlington.

The vaccine clinic, 12 p.m. to 3 p.m. is free for anyone who pays the $5 admission fee to get into the Expo. The clinic is open to anyone older than 6 months. The Expo will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Vaccine is also available at a variety of sites statewide, including health care provider offices, hospitals, work sites, and pharmacies.

To locate a public vaccination clinic, go to the Health Department’s website at www.healthvermont.gov, then select “Get Vaccinated” at the top of the home page, or dial 2-1-1.

###

Vermont Department of Health | 108 Cherry Street | Burlington, VT 05402
Voice: 802-863-7200 | In Vermont 800-464-4343 | Fax: 802-865-7754 | TTY/TDD: Dial 711 first
Health Care Provider Infectious Disease Reporting: 802-863-7240 or 800-640-4374
||| | Web Browser

