

Peter T. Mallery

Peter Mallery is a person in long-term recovery. He now serves as Vice- President in charge of Government Relations and Community Outreach for the Vermont Association for Mental Health and Addiction Recovery. He is also Director of Friends of Recovery-VT. He is a former Member of the House of Representatives and is the owner of a successful Vermont small business. In recent years he has worked for Governor Peter Shumlin on special projects related to addiction and treatment. He has also had a long career as a writer and a journalist. Mallery has served on numerous statewide boards. These include serving as President of The Vermont Historical Society, President of the Vermont Community Loan Fund, Chair of the Snelling Center for Government, Chair of the Capitol Complex Commission, Chair of the Vermont Advisory Council for Historic Preservation and President of the Second Wind Foundation. He has also served on the boards of the Vermont Association for Mental Health and Addiction Recovery, Marlboro College, the Central Vermont Community Action Council, Friends of the Statehouse, The Fairbanks Museum and Vermont PBS. Mallery has a BA from Marlboro College. He lives in Bradford, Vermont.