

Kenneth Sigsbury

Kenneth Sigsbury is the Executive Director of the Turning Point Recovery Center of Bennington and serves as Executive Chair for the Alliance for Community Transformations, which is in its second year as a DFC grantee. He has 30 years of experience in the corporate world, serving as general managers, Vice President of Operations, and CEO. He is in long term recovery from opiate addiction, which has influenced his professional experience and direction significantly. He has a degree in business management.