

Sanofi Pasteur has announced the total depletion of their supply of YF-Vax. For a limited time, some Vermont or surrounding states' travel clinics may still have this vaccine in stock. Travel vaccine clinic contact information can be found on the CDC webpage or the VT Health Department Vermont Travel Clinics webpage

Sanofi Pasteur has worked with the FDA to make an alternative yellow fever vaccine, Stamaril, available only at select locations due to limited supply. Stamaril is available in and around Vermont at
