

CITY OF BARRE, VERMONT CHIEF OF FIRE AND EMS

The City of Barre Vermont located in Central Vermont population 9,000 is seeking a highly motivated, responsible, experienced professional to join the Fire Department administrative team as Chief of Fire and EMS.

This position directs a 19 person department with present daily staffing of 4 per shift responsible for fire and EMS response, Fire Marshall, Code Enforcement and a Deputy Chief. This position oversees all activities and operations of the City's Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department and Code Enforcement. The Chief of Fire and EMS is the top administrator for the Fire and EMS Department. The Chief will also serve as the City Emergency Management Director. The primary environment is administrative, the position functions in both an office environment in a site/field position for any type of emergency under the Departments service provisions of fire and emergency medical services.

Successful candidate must have extensive experience in Fire Department Management that includes Fire-ground Operations, Emergency Medical Services, Fire Prevention, Code Enforcement, Personnel Management, Fire and EMS Training Requirements and Delivery, Budgeting, Purchasing, Contract Negotiations, Contract Administration, Media and Public Relations and additional experience in working with City Government in planning for infrastructure development. Provides Administrative, Technical and Professional Skills for Policy Direction and Planning for Fire Department and Emergency Medical Services for the City.

For a full job description or to obtain a City Application, visit <https://www.barrecity.org/hr/> or contact Human Resources at 802-793-0789.

The City of Barre is an equal opportunity employer and offers a competitive salary, a comprehensive benefits package.

Qualified applicants should submit their application, resume, cover letter and certificates electronically to rtaft@barrecity.org or mail to:

City of Barre
Chief of Fire and EMS
Human Resource Department
6 N. Main St Suite 2
Barre, VT 05641

Applications reviewed as received.