

	Community Resilience Index (CRI)	Social System Vulnerability Index (SVI)	Heat Vulnerability Index (HVI)
Publication Date	2024	2021	2016
Focus	Equity and determinants of resilience and health	Social determinants of health	Heat risks to health
Strengths	Advances ability to explore equity data, different geographic frames of reference, and change over time	Uses standard methodology also used by Federal government and New Hampshire	Hazard specific information for heat related health risks
Data available for multiple time periods	Yes 2008-2012 2010-2014 2012-2016 2014-2018 2016-2020 2018-2022	No 2016-2020	No 2009-2013
Multiple geographic frames of reference	Yes Statewide, county, health district, and hospital area	No only indexed relative to state	No Only indexed relative to state
Town-level data?	Yes	No	Yes
Census tract-level data?	Yes	Yes	No
Indexed (aggregate) indicators?	Yes	Yes	Yes
County and state level data stratified by race and ethnicity?	Yes (on the Indicator tab, 7 of 11 indicators)	No	No
Can overlay demography over housing or socioeconomic indicators?	Yes (on Population References tab)	No	No
Uses same methodology as Federal government and/or other states	No	Yes	No
Includes hazard specific data	No	No	Yes