

2024 Vermont EMS Awards

The 2024 Vermont EMS Awards will be presented during National EMS Week, May 19th - 25th, 2024.
We will be accepting nominations for the following categories:

First Responder Service of the Year
Ambulance Service of the Year
First Responder Provider of the Year
BLS Provider of the Year
ALS Provider of the year
EMS Educator of the Year
EMS for Children Champion of the Year
Vermont EMS Lifetime Award

Award presentations will be made both locally at the recipient's agency as well as at an award convocation and ceremony during the Vermont Healthcare and EMS Preparedness Conference. Please take a moment to review the following criteria and consider nominating an individual or organization you feel has earned recognition.

Nomination Procedure:

Please provide a nomination letter that includes the nominee's name, title and EMS Organization, and reasons for nominating. Nominations are welcome from anyone wishing to have a person or organization recognized and should be emailed to ahs.vdhvtems@vermont.gov by April 30th, 2024.

Below are a few helpful hints to consider when submitting a nomination:

- Consider the awards criteria for the individual or organization you are interested in nominating.
- When writing a nomination letter, keep in mind that it will be read by people who may have little familiarity with the person and organization you are describing.
- If there are additional materials such as newspaper articles, reports, or similar supporting documents that shed light on the background of the nominee, please attach these to the nomination letter.
- Nominations for this year's awards program must be received no later than April 30th, 2024. If you have any questions regarding this process or would like assistance in nominating an individual or service, please contact Vermont EMS.
