Whenever you spend time outdoors, it’s possible ticks are nearby.

Take simple steps to protect yourself from tick bite illnesses:

- Wear tick repellent and ask your vet about products for pets
- Do regular tick checks (check your pets, too!)
- Shower soon after spending time outdoors
- Watch for symptoms after removing an attached tick

For more information, visit HealthVermont.gov/BeTickSmart