

Impaired Driver Rehabilitation Program Frequently Asked Questions

healthvermont.gov/IDRP

In Vermont, it is illegal to drive a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol or other drugs. If you are convicted of driving under the influence, you must complete the Impaired Driver Rehabilitation Program (IDRP) to reinstate your privilege to drive.

What is the process?

- 1. Evaluation: An IDRP Clinical Evaluator will evaluate your program requirements.
- 2. Education: 10 hours of education including lectures, reading materials, videos and small group discussions. This education is the same anywhere in Vermont and can be completed in 2 days or over 4 weeks.
- 3. Treatment: If the Evaluator decides that treatment is required, you must complete the mandatory number of hours with a licensed clinician.
- 4. Exit Interview: The Evaluator may require an exit interview after you complete your requirements.

Contact the Vermont Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) at 802-828-2000 for other requirements or suspensions.

How much does the program cost?

The costs vary based on requirements. The mandatory evaluation is $180. The non-intensive (10 hours over 4 weeks) education program is $220. The cost for the intensive program may vary slightly by location.

How do I register?

Contact your preferred location from the list of programs at healthvermont.gov/IDRP.

How long does the program take?

If you have a 1st or 2nd offense, you may take either the intensive (10 hours in 2 days) or nonintensive (10 hours over 4 weeks) program. Visit the healthvermont.gov/IDRP for a list of programs.

What if I live out of state?

If you live out-of-state and receive an impaired driving offense in Vermont, you must complete your state's approved program and provide proof of completion to IDRP. (Vermont is a member of the 47 State Driver License Interstate Compact, which allows the exchange of information concerning license suspensions and traffic violations of non-residents.) This process can be complicated—feel free to call IDRP for assistance.

How long does it take to get my license reinstated?

After you complete all requirements, the IDRP Central Office will process your paperwork within 10 days and provide it to the DMV. The DMV usually processes the paperwork within 5 business days.

What if I have a lifetime suspension?

If you live in Vermont and have a lifetime suspension, you will need to complete treatment (minimum of 20 hours over 24 weeks and apply for reinstatement of your license through the DMV Total Abstinence Application process. For more information about Total Abstinence, please visit dmv.vermont.gov/licenses/suspensions/total-abstinence or call DMV at (802) 828-2067.

What form do I need to fill out?

You will need to fill out the Release of Confidential Information Form, which can be found at healthvermont.gov/IDRP.

What form does my treatment clinician need to fill out?

Your treatment clinician must complete the Treatment Information Form, which can be found at healthvermont.gov/IDRP.

How do I schedule my exit interview?

Contact your IDRP Clinical Evaluator to schedule an exit interview after you have completed all requirements.

What out of state programs are accepted?

Can I take an online program?

There are no Vermont-approved online programs for Vermont residents. If you do not live in Vermont, please contact the IDRP Central Office for help finding a program in your state.

Can my alcohol or other drug counseling replace the education component?

No. You may be required to complete counseling in addition to the education component, but it cannot replace it.

Can my victim's impact panel replace the program?

No. The court may require you to attend a victim's impact panel, but it is not part of the program.

Can my Safe Driving Program replace the program?

No. The court may require you to take the Safe Driving Program but is it not part of the program.

Do I need to complete the program before I can get an ignition interlock device installed?

No, but completion of the IDRP is required in order to remove the ignition interlock device to avoid suspension.

Are urine drug screenings and abstinence required for the program?

You may be asked to submit urine drug screens or engage in a period of abstinence by the IDRP Evaluator or the treatment clinician.

I have been able to get my license reinstated before without the program, why now?

The federal government requires that all states participate in the National Driver Register to prevent people who have a suspended license in one state from getting license in another state. Some states only recently began checking the register.
