Title 26: Professions and Occupations

Chapter 31: PHYSICIAN'S ASSISTANTS

26 V.S.A. § 1736. Unprofessional conduct

TITLE 26

Professions and Occupations

CHAPTER 31. PHYSICIAN'S ASSISTANTS

§ 1736. Unprofessional conduct

(a) The following conduct by a certified physician's assistant or registered physician's assistant-trainee constitutes unprofessional conduct. When that conduct is by an applicant or person who later becomes an applicant, it may constitute grounds for denial of certification or registration:

- (1) fraudulent procuring or use of certification or registration;
- (2) occupational advertising which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public;
- (3) exercising undue influence on or taking improper advantage of a person using the individual's services; or promoting the sale of professional goods or services in a manner which exploits a person for the financial gain of the practitioner or of a third party;
- (4) failing to comply with provisions of federal or state statutes or rules governing the profession;
- (5) conviction of a crime related to the profession;
- (6) conduct which evidences unfitness to practice in the profession.

(b) Unprofessional conduct includes the following actions by a certified physician's assistant or a registered physician's assistant trainee:

- (1) making or filing false professional reports or records, impeding or obstructing the proper making or filing of professional reports or records, or failing to file the proper professional report or record;
- (2) practicing the profession when mentally or physically unfit to do so;
- (3) professional negligence;

(4) accepting and performing responsibilities which the individual knows or has reason to know that he or she is not competent to perform;

(5) making any material misrepresentation in the practice of the profession, whether by commission or omission;

(6) the act of holding one's self out as, or permitting one's self to be represented as, a licensed physician;

(7) performing otherwise than at the direction and under the supervision of a physician licensed by the board;

(8) accepting the delegation of, or performing or offering to perform a task or tasks beyond the individual's scope as defined by the board;

(9) administering, dispensing or prescribing any controlled substance otherwise than as authorized by law.

(c) A person aggrieved by a determination of the board may, within 30 days of the order, appeal that order to the Vermont supreme court on the basis of the record created before the board. (Added 1981, No. 100, § 6; amended 1985, No. 208 (Adj. Sess.), § 8, eff. June 30, 1986; 1989, No. 250 (Adj. Sess.), § 47; 2003, No. 34, § 13, eff. May 23, 2003.)
