

LYME ISN'T THE ONLY TICKBORNE DISEASE.

ANAPLASMOSIS is the second most common tickborne disease in Vermont. Men and women age 50 and older are especially at risk.

Over 25% of Vermonters who get anaplasmosis are hospitalized, but it is treatable. If you experience symptoms, see a health care provider.

- » Fever
- » Fatigue
- » Muscle aches
- » Headache
- » Nausea or vomiting