Section 5: Member Consent — Rights and Responsibilities

- I understand that by completing this consent form, I am enrolling in the You First Program, a program of the Vermont Department of Health. I understand that You First is a program supported by the National Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program (NBCCEDP) and the WISEWOMAN Program (Well Integrated Screening and Evaluation of Women across the Nation), programs of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). The NBCCEDP exists to provide uninsured and underserved women access to timely breast and cervical cancer screening and diagnostic services. WISEWOMAN exists to provide uninsured and underserved women with chronic disease risk factor screening, lifestyle programs, and referral services to prevent cardiovascular disease.
- I acknowledge that You First is a breast, cervical and heart health screening program and that the program does NOT cover the costs of care that are not associated with these screening services.
- I acknowledge that the You First program provides eligible program members with access to preventive services, including screenings for cardiovascular disease risk factors (assessment of body mass index, blood pressure, cholesterol and blood sugar/glucose), risk reduction counseling, medical follow up (if required) and healthy behavior support options in an effort to prevent cardiovascular disease.
- I understand that You First only pays for certain tests. You First does not pay for ANY cancer treatment. I have talked to someone from the You First program or the health clinic about what choices I have and understand that I may have to pay for some tests and treatment that You First does not cover.
- I understand that You First has rules about who may enroll in the program. You First members can have private insurance. If I have private insurance, my insurer will be billed first. All of the information I have given is true as far as I know.
- I understand that when I enroll in You First I am giving permission for the program to share information about my eligibility with other Agency of Human Services programs in order to coordinate services.
- I understand that when I enroll for You First I am giving permission for the program to share personal health information related to breast and cervical cancer screenings, heart disease risk factor screening, and diagnosis and treatment care to be shared with my doctor, nurse, hospital, clinics, health care providers involved in my tests and treatment. My information is also shared with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (the National Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program and the WISEWOMAN Program). You First is very careful to keep my information private.
- I understand that You First looks at the health and demographic information of women enrolled in the program to help improve the health of all women.
- I authorize my doctor, clinic, hospital, the laboratory, and lifestyle programs to share my information with the You First Program so that they can make sure I receive the highest quality care. The information is also needed in order for You First to pay my medical bills.
- I understand that I have the right to withdraw from the You First program. If I no longer want to be enrolled in the program, I will inform You First so that I can be withdrawn. Please send a letter to: Vermont Department of Health, P.O. Box 70, Drawer 38, Burlington, VT 05402-0070 or call our Member Services Coordinator at 800-508-2222.

YOU FIRST
Screening and support for heart disease, breast and cervical cancer.

"We" are the Agency of Human Services (AHS). AHS includes the Department for Children and Families; the Department of Disabilities, Aging and Independent Living; the Department of Health; the Department of Mental Health; the Department of Corrections; and the Office of Vermont Health Access. Our contractors and grantees include service providers throughout Vermont, such as parent-child centers, adult day centers, and community mental health centers.

When we provide you with health and social services, we will obtain individually identifiable information (identifying information), and sometimes health information, about you. Federal and state laws require us to protect this information.

This notice tells you about how we may use or share your identifying and/or health information and when we may not do so. It also tells you about your rights. The law requires that we give you this notice. The law requires us to follow the terms of the notice currently in effect.

FREE INTERPRETER SERVICES ARE AVAILABLE

Please tell us if you need an interpreter or other accommodation in order to read and understand this notice.

Privacy practices regarding: Health information

1. What health information does AHS have about me?

You and others may give us information about your health and health care when you apply for or receive our services. This may include information about your diagnosis, disability or treatment. This may also include financial and billing information.

2. What health information does AHS use and share?

We use and share only the minimum necessary health information that our staff or our contractors need to do their jobs.

3. When does AHS use or share my health information?

We may use and share your health information for treatment, payment, or health care operations which includes service planning and AHS administration. For example, we may use your information for the following reasons:

- To determine your eligibility for services or benefits
- To create and provide individualized service or treatment plans.

For example, we may share your information to make a plan for your treatment with nurses, doctors and other health care workers who treat you.

- To remind you of appointments.
- To tell you of other service supports or treatments that may be helpful to you or your family.
- To pay for your services.

For example, your doctor may send us your health information so that we can pay her.

Agency of Human Services
Notice of Privacy Practices This notice takes effect as of August 20, 2013

Please review carefully

Privacy practices regarding: Health information

We may also share your health information with contractors so that they can pay your doctor for us.

- To carry out our operations and manage our programs.

For example, we may use and share your health information to make sure people who care for you give you high quality services and are paid promptly and correctly. We may use and share your information to make sure you get the right services and to improve the services that you get.

4. Are there other times that AHS uses and shares my health information without my authorization?

There are limited times when we use and share information without your authorization. Sometimes the law allows or requires us to do this.

We may share your information without your authorization for the following personal reasons:

- With a family member or any other person you choose, relevant to their involvement in your care or payment for your care.
- To notify your family or other person responsible for your care of your location, condition or death.
- To a funeral director or medical examiner who needs the information to carry out their duties.
- For worker's compensation or other similar programs.

We may share your information without your authorization for the following special reasons:

- For public health activities such as preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability, and for keeping vital records of things such as births and deaths.
- For research purposes, subject to strict legal restrictions.
- With organizations that provide for organ donation and transplants.
- In response to a court or administrative order, subpoena, discovery request, or other process.
- To the police when required by law.
- To report a crime committed on our premises or against our staff.
- To report abuse or neglect to the appropriate authorities.
- To a health oversight agency for oversight activities authorized by law such as audits and investigations.
- To the United States Department of Health and Human Services for a compliance review or complaint investigation.
- To avoid a serious threat to the health or safety of a person or the public, or for law enforcement to identify or apprehend an individual.
- To carry out specialized governmental functions, such as to protect public officials, for national security, for military affairs, and to correctional institutions for certain purposes.
- With another agency administering a government program providing public benefits, with respect to eligibility or enrollment information, and to better coordinate, administer and manage related government programs.

Except for the reasons stated in this notice and permitted by law, we will not use or share your health information without your written authorization.

5. What if someone else needs my health information?

You may ask that we give your information to others, or we may ask your permission to do so. Before we share any information, you will be asked to sign an authorization form. The authorization form tells us what information to share, the purposes for sharing, and the identity of the person(s) with whom we will share. You can cancel your authorization at any time.

6. May I see my health information?

In most cases, you may see your health information. You should ask the Privacy Officer, in writing, to see it or to get a copy of it (see contact information on page 4). You may also request electronic copies of information that we hold electronically. Safety or other legal reasons may limit the information that you see. We may charge a reasonable amount for copying.

7. May I change my health information?

If you think some of your health information in your record is incorrect, you may ask in writing that we correct it or add new information. You may ask that we send the corrected or new information to others who have received your health information from us.

We may not make the changes or additions if in our opinion the information is already accurate and complete or for other reasons. If we do not agree to change your information, we will tell you, in writing, why we do not agree. We will also note in your record that you asked us to change your information and that we did not agree to change it.

8. May I ask AHS to restrict how it uses and shares my health information?

You may ask that we restrict how we use and share your health information. Your request must be in writing and tell us what restrictions you want. We will consider your request but are not required to agree with it.

9. May I request that AHS communicate with me in a confidential way?

You may ask that we communicate with you by reasonable alternative means or at an alternative location. Your request must be in writing and tell us where and how we should contact you. We will try to honor your request.

10. May I get a list of when AHS has shared my health information with someone?

You may ask for an accounting of disclosures of your health information by us. You must make your request in writing to the Privacy Officer. The law does not require us to list every situation in which we have shared your information. For example, we do not have to list those times that we shared your information for AHS treatment, payment or health care operations or when we shared your information pursuant to an authorization signed by you.

11. Will I be told if there is a breach of the privacy or security of my health information?

We will notify you in writing if there is ever a breach of your health information. A breach occurs when someone impermissibly sees, uses or discloses protected health information in a way that compromises the privacy or security of the health information.

11. What laws does AHS follow that apply to the privacy of my health information?

We follow the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, known as HIPAA. We also follow any federal or state laws that give you greater privacy protections than HIPAA, whenever they apply. For example, we follow the federal confidentiality law concerning substance abuse treatment programs, 42 CFR Part 2, and state confidentiality laws concerning mental health records, 18 VSA § 7103.

12. May I have a copy of this notice?

Yes, you are entitled to a copy of this notice. You may ask us for a copy at any time. An electronic version is on our website, www.ahs.state.vt.us.

13. Can AHS change its privacy practices?

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and this notice. Any changes in our practices will apply to information about you that we already have and to information that we receive in the future. We will post a copy of any new notice on our website, www.ahs.state.vt.us, and provide it to you by mail.

14. Who do I contact if I have questions about this notice?

Please contact the Privacy Officer by phone at 802-769-2160 or by mail at:

AHS Privacy Officer
Office of the Attorney General
103 South Main Street
Waterbury VT 05671-1201

15. How do I complain if I believe that my privacy rights have been violated?

You can complain to our privacy officer in writing or by phone. You can also complain to the Office for Civil Rights, DHHS, JFK Federal Building Room 1875, Boston, MA 02203.

You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint. Benefits or services that you receive will not be affected by any complaint that you make to the AHS Privacy Officer or to the Office for Civil Rights.

Violations of 42 CFR Part 2 (drug and alcohol confidentiality law) is a crime. Suspected violations of this law may be reported to the United States Attorney in the district where the violation occurred.

In addition to health information privacy practices, AHS has guidelines concerning the confidentiality of information that identifies the individuals to whom we provide benefits and services.

What is individually identifiable information?

This is information created or received by AHS or its contractors or grantees that identifies, or reasonably could identify, an individual who receives services or benefits from AHS. Examples of identifying information are:

- Name
- Social security number
- Date of birth
- Address
- Phone number

When does AHS share or disclose my identifying information without my permission?

We may share or disclose your identifying information for our own program administration without your permission. Program administration means activities necessary to carry out the operations of AHS and consist of the following:

- Establishing eligibility and scope of services and assistance for which you have applied, including the identification and coordination of these services within AHS and with its contractors and grantees.
- Planning, providing, arranging, funding or paying for services and assistance for individuals and families.
- Coordination of benefits.
- Detecting fraud and abuse.
- Engaging in quality control and improvement activities.
- Emergency response and disaster relief.
- Complying with federal and state legal, reporting and funding requirements.

When does AHS need to have my permission before sharing or disclosing my identifiable information?

We need your written permission to share or disclose your identifying information in order to:

- Consider your eligibility for services other than those for which you have already applied.
- Coordinate your services with your providers who do not have a contract or grant with us.
- Consult with professionals outside of AHS in order to benefit from their expertise.
- Share with the persons of your choice.

If you do not give permission in the above circumstances, we may not be able to provide the full quantity and quality of services that may be available to you.
